

PUSSYFOOT BUNNY MUSEUM

9.2008

GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS

CERTIFICATE

The world's largest bunny collection is held by husband and wife Steve Lubinski and Candace Frazier of Pasadena, California, USA, who have acquired 8437 bunny rabbit-themed collectibles as of 8 August 1999

Proprietor of the Records
GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS LTD

Signature

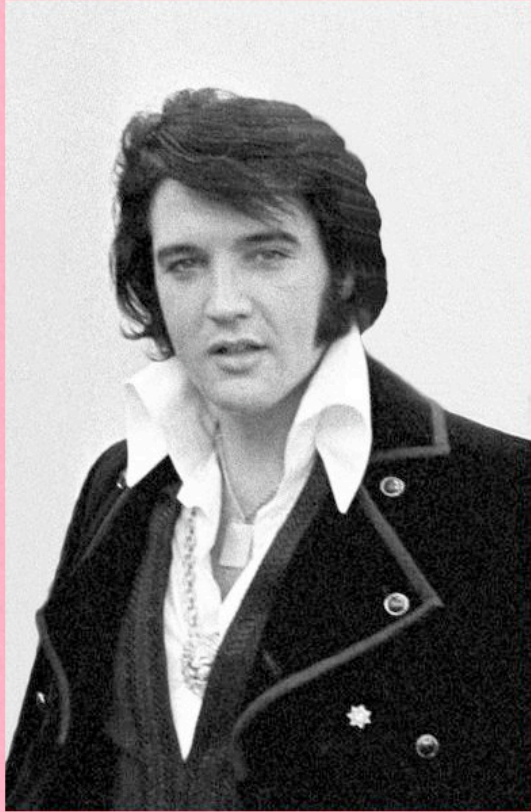

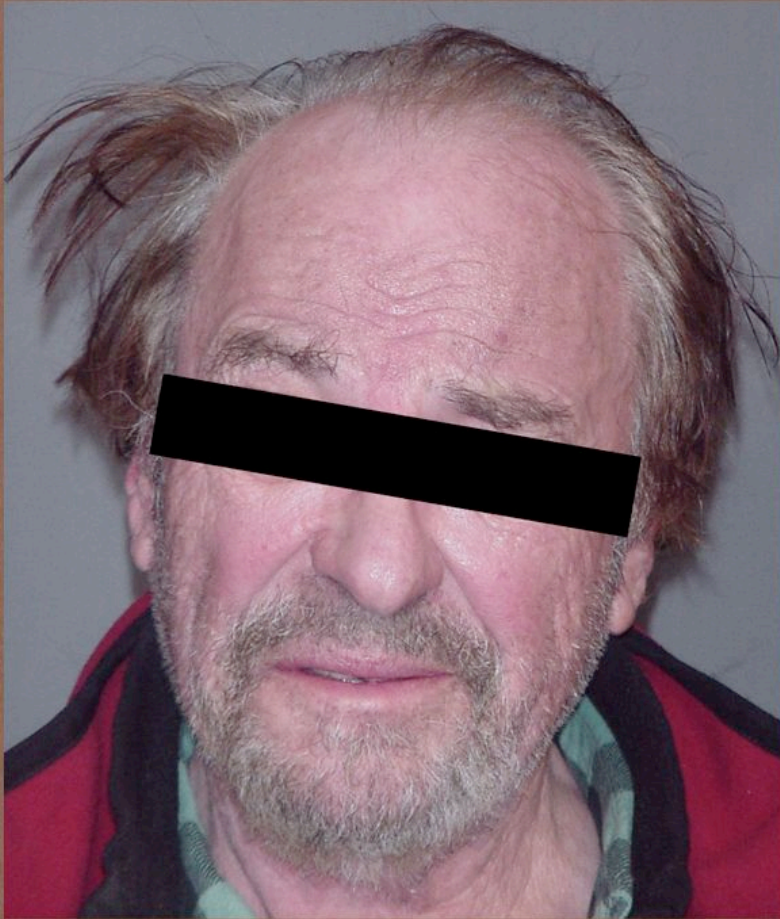

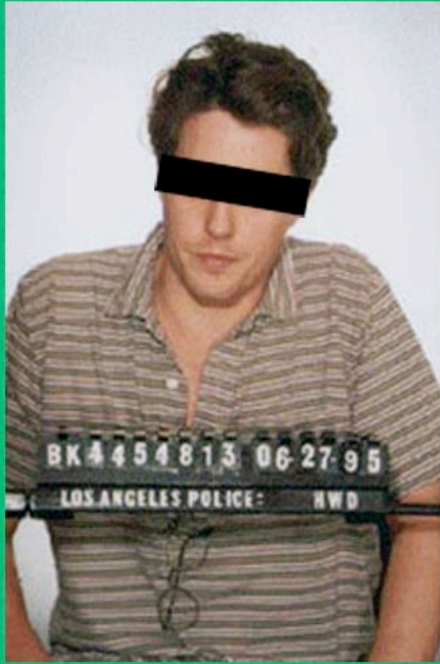

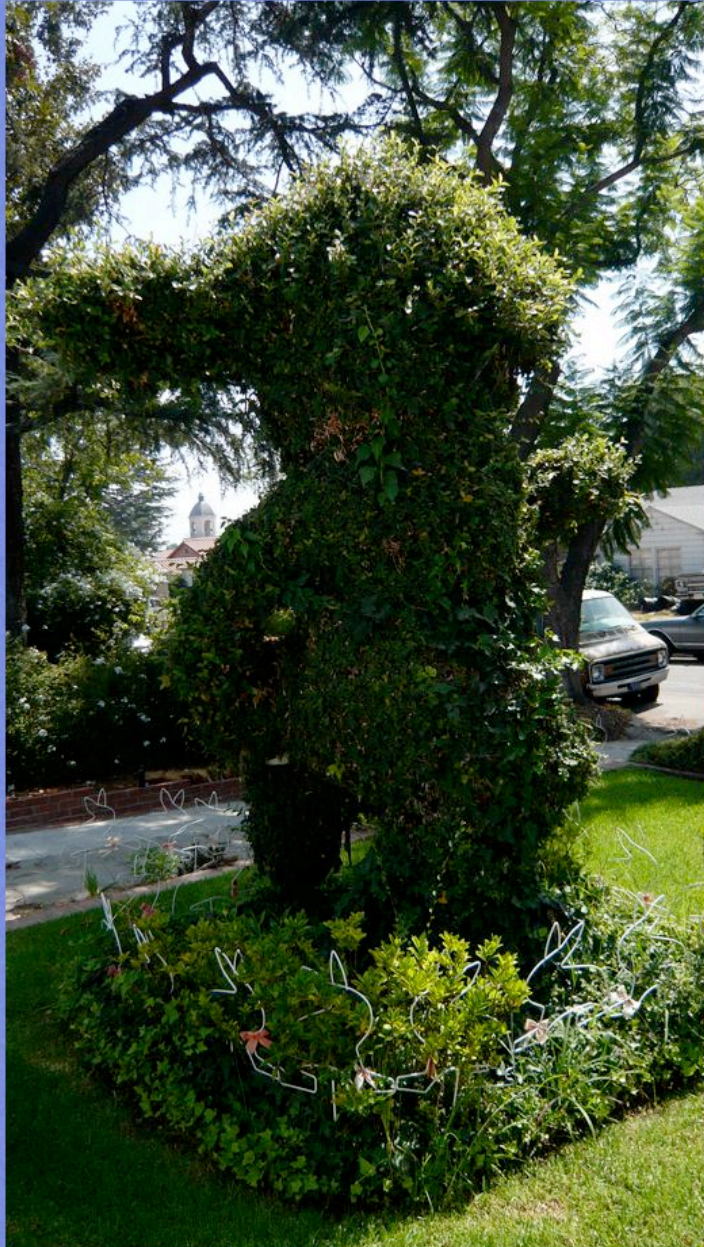

NOTICE

24 HOUR SURVEILLANCE
RECORDED ON VIDEO TAPE

Closed Circuit Television

PRODUCT # 873 88 © 1994 MICHELL ALAMI SUPPLY, L.A. CA

There is an Answer

Living in the Post-Apocalyptic World

Candace Frazee

THE BUNNY MUSEUM
PASADENA, CALIFORNIA

Candace Frazee is not only famous for owning The Bunny Museum with her husband, Steve Luhninski, (Guinness World Record holders of the most bunny items in the world) but, she also directs the annual Angel Festival and writes a monthly newsletter about Emanuel Swedenborg. You know, the Swedish, 18th century scientist that spoke to angels!

Never heard of Swedenborg (1688-1772)? You're not alone. And that's where Candace comes in. For 20 years she has been helping others to understand Swedenborg. People from as far away as Australia, Japan, and Kenya write Candace with difficult questions about life and death. In a loving way, Candace answers from a Swedenborgian perspective that both helps and comforts.

Now you can read some of those letters to "Dear Candace" from 1988-2008. Her answers are surprisingly simple. Though Swedenborg "the apocalyptic historiographer" is complex, Candace is great at sorting out any confusion.

"Swedenborg enables us to understand why we were created, why we are alive and what happens to us after we leave this world. Swedenborg enables us to have the best possible understanding of God's message as it exists in these little books which constitute God's Word."
Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (1929-1968)

There is an Answer

Living in the Post-Apocalyptic World

Candace Frazee

